For more than 80 years, Rapala has delivered the lures that catch record fish all over the world. Now, that expertise has been harnessed to create the perfect tool for storing your baits: the Rapala Tackle Trays. Manufactured in the same Finnish factory that injects the diving lips for Rapala's wooden baits and the bodies for plastic baits, the Rapala Tackle Trays feature that same in-depth plastic injection know-how. Customisable, stackable, rigid, strong - and so much more. The Rapala Tackle Trays are the quality you get when anglers design for anglers.
