Discover the efficiency of the Sensas magnetic box - your new fishing trip companion!

The Sensas magnetic box for hooks is an indispensable accessory for every angler. With its revolutionary magnetic securing system, it keeps your hooks exactly where you need them - safe and within easy reach. No more clutter and tedious searching for the right hook!

Compact organisation for professional and amateur anglers

Choose your size for customised organisation:

- Small and neat: the 25-compartment version with dimensions of 12x8x2 cm offers enough space for a large number of hooks without taking up too much room in your equipment.
- Large and clearly organised: For the ambitious angler, there is the 44-compartment version measuring 14.5x10.5x2 cm, which is also suitable for a larger range of hooks.

High-quality workmanship for long-lasting use

Made from robust materials, the Sensas magnetic box can withstand the challenges of everyday fishing. The compact design enables space-saving storage and transport, while the clear organisation of the compartments keeps your tackle tidy.

Specially developed for freshwater fishing

The magnet box has been specially designed for the needs of freshwater fishing to give you the best possible support on the water.

Key features:

- Magnetic base in each compartment for secure hook storage
- 25 or 44 compartments for individual needs
- Compact dimensions for easy transport and space-saving storage
- Robust material for durable use
- Ideal for coarse fishing

With the Sensas magnetic box, you are not just buying a hook box, but a well thought-out system for storing your most important small items. Increase your efficiency and concentration on the water by organising your fishing accessories.
