Discover the Zeck Mono Leader Pro - The ultimate leader for catfish from Zeck Fishing

Excellent quality and performance direct from Japan

Proudly made in Japan, the Zeck Mono Leader Pro catfish leader represents the pinnacle of innovation in catfish leaders. As the leading product from Zeck Fishing, this monofilament leader offers a perfect combination of suppleness and unrivalled abrasion resistance, making it the preferred catfish leader for discerning anglers.

Key features that leave nothing to be desired

- 20m running length: Designed for a variety of catfish rigs, it offers flexibility and efficiency.
- Load capacity from 36-90kg: Designed to take on and win the fight with the biggest catfish.
- Diameter of 0.78-1.28mm: Provides an ideal blend of strength and discretion underwater.
- Transparent line colour: Ensures invisibility in the water to outwit even the most cautious catfish.
- Polyamide material: Guarantees durability and high knot strength.

Unbeatable advantages for ambitious catfish anglers

- Prevention of tangles: Specially developed to prevent knots and tangles, the Zeck catfish leader makes every fishing trip easier.
- Easy handling: Despite its impressive strength, the catfish leader is easy to handle and knot.
- Superior abrasion resistance: Proven in comparative tests to be up to 20% more resistant to abrasion than other materials.

- Perfect for waters with strong currents: The smooth yet stiff texture makes it the ideal catfish leader in challenging conditions.

Trust in the quality of Zeck Fishing

Thanks to our exclusive collaboration with the traditional Japanese company Momoi, we can guarantee that the Zeck Mono Leader Pro is a catfish leader that is unrivalled in terms of quality and performance. Whether in strong currents or when using lively baitfish, the Zeck leader stands for maximum efficiency and reliability.
