Common features of Zeck fixed spool reels

- Ultra robust: Ideal for tough catfish fishing, robust catfish reel and Zeck spinning reel for fresh and salt water. It offers unsurpassed durability thanks to its 100 % aluminium reel body.
- Specialised for spin fishing: The SR 5 is perfect for spinning rods with 100 - 200 g casting weight, a real asset for every spin fisherman. Ideal for fishing for catfish and pike.
- Sea fishing: Both models are saltwater-resistant and are ideal for demanding tuna drills.
- Sturdy line clips and interchangeable crank handle: Optimised for comfort and functionality.

Zeck SR 5 - Flexible and powerful

Specially designed for anglers who value technology and flexibility. With a line capacity of 190 m / 0.36 mm and a weight of just 480 g, this reel is a must-have for effective spinning and vertical fishing.

- Max. drag: 11 kg
- Gear ratio: 5,6:1
- Line retraction: 104 cm per handle rotation

- Ideal for spinning and vertical anglers as well as light seat fishing. Perfectly matched to spinning rods with 100 - 200 g casting weight.

Zeck SR 10 - For the big catches

With a line capacity of 280 m / 0.50 mm and a robust design that has been specially developed for laying out rigs by boat and for medium-distance casts, the SR 10 is the ideal partner for ambitious catfish anglers.

- Weight: 725 g
- Max. drag: 14 kg
- Gear ratio: 4,7:1
- Line retraction: 113 cm per handle rotation
- Ideal for setting up rigs with a boat and for casting at medium distances. Suitable for anglers who need a powerful spinning reel.

Whether catfishing in rivers, spinning in lakes or sea fishing, Zeck reels offer you the strength, reliability and performance you need to be successful.

Choose your model: SR 5 for flexibility and agility or SR 10 for power and endurance - both at an unbeatable price of under €200.
