The Z-JG rod is perfect for fishing with rubber lures for zander, but it is also suitable for other techniques for pike, asp, and co. The name "Z-JG" already indicates that it is particularly good for jigging. The lure feel is excellent and the casting weight allows the use of heavy heads in strong streams. Despite this, the rod remains sensitive even with lower lure weights. The construction is based on other Zeck Zander jigs as we wanted to keep the same successful concept. In order to offer the Z-JG in a more affordable price range, we used the same SIC rings as in our All Black series. The blank was a real surprise to us as it achieved a speed through a special manufacturing process that we previously thought was impossible in this price range. All Zeck predator rods are securely packaged and come with a matching fabric rod case.

Special features of the rod:
