The perfect popper for tuna and other big sea predators

The Hearty Rise Popper Monster Game Tuna-I, masterfully created by Didier Courtois, stands for precision and quality. Each popper is carefully crafted and painted by hand using only the best materials. The combination of robust wood and high-quality paintwork ensures durability and resistance to the harsh conditions at sea. Designed specifically for tuna fishing, this range offers you the best tuna lure for your fishing adventures.

Versatile application possibilities

Although the Hearty Rise Popper was primarily designed for sea fishing for tuna such as bluefin tuna, skipjack tuna, albacore and yellowfin tuna, it also performs excellently when fishing for other large sea predators such as dorado and wahoo. Its design allows it to be used effectively in a variety of waters from tropical to moderate zones.

Impressive catch reports

Anglers worldwide report the exceptional success they have experienced with the Hearty Rise Popper Monster Game Tuna-I. Its unique shape and balance allow for easy and precise lure presentation, attracting large predators and enticing bites. When stationary, it tilts 45° to the water surface, creating an impressive spray of water with every strike.
