Explore the masterpiece of the Illex lure - The Mag Squad 115 F

Immerse yourself in the world of the Illex lure with the Mag Squad 115 F, a legendary hardbait that has been added to our range due to its great popularity. With a length of 11.5 cm and a weight of 15.5 g, this lure is specially designed for those looking for a reliable companion for zander and pike fishing.

Why the Mag Squad 115 F?

The Mag Squad 115 F builds on the success of its predecessor, the Mag Squad 128. With its outstanding swimming and sound attraction, this lure is a must for any serious angler. Opting for a smaller version allows for the best possible performance even in specific conditions.

Perfect adaptability

This versatile lure is ideal for different waters and conditions. Whether fishing in shallow waters such as polders or in winding areas, the Mag Squad 115 F offers you the flexibility and precision you need to maximise your chances of catching fish. Even in demanding conditions, be it pike, zander, perch, black bass or sea angling for sea bass and saithe, this lure proves to be a reliable companion.

Special colour range for zander night fishing

To further increase your chances of success, a wide range of colours has been developed, including special colours for night fishing for zander along the banks of large rivers. These carefully selected colours are designed to achieve maximum attraction even in difficult light conditions.
