Illex Squirrel 76 SP lure: The versatile pro for large perch and zander

Masterful fishing with twitch and jerk techniques

The Illex Squirrel 76 SP lure is characterised by its exceptional suitability for various twitch and jerk techniques. Its balance and design enable precise movements under water, making it ideal for targeted fishing for large perch and zander. It reacts sensitively to the slightest jerking movements and perfectly imitates the behaviour of an injured prey fish.

Optimum performance in a wide variety of waters

Whether in shallow streams or deep lakes - the Squirrel 76 SP shows its strengths in a wide variety of waters. Its effectiveness is unsurpassed, especially in clear water, where its lifelike movements and colours attract the attention of the fish.

Frenetic movements for maximum attraction

With a length of 7.6 cm and a weight of 8.6 g, the Squirrel 76 SP is perfectly sized to attract larger prey fish throughout the season. Its suspended swimming behaviour and swimming depth of 0.5 - 1.0 m allow for flexible use.

- Ideal for large perch and zander
- Sensitive to jerking movements, imitates injured prey fish

- Effective in a variety of waters, from shallow streams to deep lakes
